FOXWORTHY—ALEXANDER.

Beautiful Wedding at Lewisburg Baptist Church Wednesday Evening.

The marriage of Miss Lena Rivers Alexander of Lewisburg to Mr. Isaac Evans Foxworthy of Mt. Carmel took place at the Lewisburg Baptist Church on the evening of the 7th of June at 8 o'clock.

The popularity of the participants, combined with the beauty of the evening, drew together a large crowd of friends and relatives who were ushered to their seats by two beautiful young ladies of Mayslick—Miss Jean Brough and Miss Alberta Caldwell. Both were gowned in pink organdie with trimmings of lace and ribbons.

The Church had been converted into a bower of beauty, the altar being banked with potted plants and the space back of it festooned with greens.

The bridal procession entered from the back of the Church to the dulcet strains of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Mrs. H. S. McMullen of Manchester, O. It was headed by the two ushers, who came down opposite aisles and crossed in front of the altar, taking their stand at either side.

Next down one aisle walked Miss Mamie Key of Washington and down the other Mr. J. J. Owens of Lewisburg. They were followed by Miss Allie Baker Alexander and Mr. Benjamin Cox of Maysville.

Misses Key and Alexander were very handsome in gowns of white organdie and ribbon. Then, down the right aisle, came the bride and her maid of honor, Miss Margaret Robb of Mayslick. Together they formed a picture of loveliness which attracted every eye.

The bride wore a gown of heavy cream satin relieved by airy garnitures and was covered with a long veil.

The maid, Miss Robb, wore pink organdie and veil.

The bride carried white roses, the maids pink roses and the ushers carnations and ferns.

Just opposite the bride and Miss Robb came the groom with his best man, Dr. G. E. King of Helena.

The couples met and ascended the altar steps together, where the bride was handed over to the groom.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Hugh Seary while "Call Me Thine Own" pealed forth from the organ.

The bridal party left the Church in the following order: Mr. and Mrs. Foxworthy, Dr. King and Miss Robb, Mr. Cox and Miss Alexander, Mr. Owens and Miss Key, Miss Brough and Miss Caldwell. They, together with friends and relatives, repaired to the bride's home, where she changed her dress for a tailored gown of grey cloth.

The happy couple left, amid showers of congratulations, for the East and will make their home when they return at Mt. Carmel.

The bride is a daughter of Mr. Joe Alexander, and is greatly beloved for her beautiful character and many accomplishments.

The groom is a prosperous merchant of Mt. Carmel and a young man of sterling qualities. The presents were numerous and handsome, including a suite of furniture, silver, cut glass and bric-a-brac.

LAST COMMENCEMENT.

Colored High School's Exercises at the Opera-House Last Evening.

GOOD PROGRAM AND CROWD.

Again was the elegant Washington Opera-house the scene of excellent exercises when last evening the commencement of the Maysville Colored High School took place.

Like the preceding evening a large audience of the friends of the scholars was present, and at the close expressions of satisfaction of the manner in which the program had been conducted were heard on every hand.

The Faculty of the school is certainly an efficient one if the public exercises are any index to the general character of school work.

This year there was but one graduate, Mr. James Cotty. This young man finished his course and did great credit to himself and justice to his teachers. He was presented with his diploma by Mr. George T. Hunter.

Following was the program:

Prayer—Rev. T. L. Rount.
Music—Wake Up, Sweet Melody.....Bliss Led by High School.

Oration—Little Things, Mary F. Whaley.

Dumb-Bell Exercises, By Sixteen Misses.

Music—Class Song—We Come, We Come, High School Class.

The dumb-bell exercises, under the direction of Miss Effie P. McCann, were so heartily appreciated and encored as to be repeated.

President George T. Hunter of the Board of Education made some timely remarks especially to the parents, urging them to take more interest in the cause of education. The school attendance was not as large as it should have been in the past year, and Mr. Hunter called attention to the necessity of the parents doing their duty.

Professor James S. Hathaway, Principal, offered at the opening of the school session a prize for the pupil making the best average in spelling during the year. Miss Elizabeth Strawder was the fortunate pupil and was awarded the prize.

The musical part of the program in charge of Miss Dinwiddie was exceptionally fine. The exercises as a whole were admirable and thoroughly enjoyed.
